“ To the entire Bommarito family, my heart aches for all of you. It's so difficult to say goodbye. She knows how much you are hurting, because you loved her so much, but her everlasting love for her family will help you to remember her with a smile...and tears too. I pray that you know she will always watch over you. Mrs. Bommarito, I can still smell the wonderful cakes that you made and let all of us kids eat the extras that you baked. Cammie

“ My utmost condolences to the Family of Josephine Bommarito. She was such a beautiful person. It still makes me smile to think about when she would get on her soap box though when she was passionate about a subject. :) She did so much for the American Legion Auxiliary.

“ Joe, I've known you all my life. mom said she met you by ironing for you. I think that was the greatest friendship to have ever been started. You & Guy were just like our Aunt & Uncle. Your children, our cousins. Even though you weren't blood, you all were and always will be family. I haven't seen you or talked to you in quite sometime, but you have always been in my thoughts. I remember Fran falling into the air return and I remember Mom & Dads 25th anniversary party in your basement. I remember all the great meals you cooked! I'll never forget how you use to squeeze my cheeks and say beta, beta. I ask you what that meant and you said pretty, pretty. I know we will all see each other once again by the grace of God. I won't cry, I will rejoice in your parting this earth for I believe there is a God and I know you are with him! You will be greatly missed Joe not only by your children, but also your adopted ones like me. Much Love to all five children and Grandchildren and you all have my deepest sympathies as I know what it's like to lose your Mother. I will be praying for you all!

“ Mom I thought I was ready for you to earn your angel wings and be with daddy and Tommy but I see I was not really ready. Mom you taught me so much and were always there for all of us. You were the best mom, mother in law, grandma and GG any one could ask for. I know you are happy and while I cry for you I know that you are where you wanted to be. I so missed those every night phone calls we did after you had your stroke and now I miss not seeing you everyday at Villages. If I can be 1/4 the mom, mother in law, grandma and one day GG that you were I will be so grateful. Thank you for showing me how to be a loving and compassionate person. I have so many memories of thing we did and I cherish them. I miss you mom but I know we will be together again one day. I love you so much mom. Give daddy and Tommy hugs and kisses for me.

“ Mom,
I miss you so much. I know you will always be looking down on us all. You were an amazing women, a loving & caring mother and Grandma. The memories you have given to all of us are endless. There is such a void in my heart. You taught me so much. I just wish you could tell me how to be strong right now. My heart is so heavy. What I wouldn't give to hold you hand, touch you face & give you another kiss. I love you more more each day. I will always be your Baby.
Love you with all my heart.

“ Dearest Josie - Mom and I have known you for only a year. But that year has been a true blessing to us for knowing you and your family. We will never forget you and hopefully meet again someday. Your smile was such a treasure to watch and you had the sweet gift of caring for people. We will miss you very much.

Hugs and Kisses

Mom,

It has been less than 24 hours and I miss your terrible. You will always be in my heart and I promise to talk to you often. I have so many great memories that I will cherish always of my life as your son and you know I have always been extremely proud to tell people that I was a mama's boy. I will always remember your beautiful smile and the gentle way you held my hand. Be proud that you raised 5 great children and I am sure each and every time the 5 of us are together you will hear us talking about you and how you were the best MOM in the world. I know you are with Dad now and please give him a hug and kiss from me. Visit me anytime you can and one day we will hold hands again. My heart hurts so bad but I know you are where you want to be. You are the glue that held us all together mom and I will never stop being grateful for all you have done for me. I know that when I look into the sky and night you will be the brightest of stars. To me this will be you looking down on us all and smiling.

Your forever loving son
