“ Mr. Nebel was one of my favorite teachers and coaches ever!! We went undefeated in soccer like 3 years in a row and even had an awesome basketball team. I found out about his passing a couple years ago when I went up to Salem to see him and tell him of the impact that he made on my life. He was my science teacher from 1996-2000 and because of him Science has always been my favorite subject. I loved his witty personality and willingness to make life fun. His wife was amazing as well! I love ya Mr. Nebel and will never forget you. Thank you for the amazing impact you had on my life!

“ Nebels, I really got to know Mark better while we were athletic Directors in the Lutheran League. Mark was our expert soccer person and we turned to him for rules and scheduling. He was a voice of reason and always made sure we did things right, and for the kids. I enjoyed coaching against him in soccer and basketball. His teams were always well prepared. He is blessed to be in the comfort and happiness of the Lord. I'm sure he is officiating some contest in heaven right now. May your family be at peace and your faith strengthened from day forward. In Christ. David W. Schoedel

“ I did not know Mark on a deep personal level; nonetheless, the several times we did interact at wrestling venues, he was always genuine and respectful. I appreciated his amiable personality as well. He could always make a tense situation light! Bless you and yours and thank you for being good people.

Peace and Love Always,

“ Mr. Nebal was my sixth grade teacher at Salem Lutheran, and he made a special and lasting impact on my life that I will never forget. He captured my attention and favor with his passion, excitement, intensity, and willingness to be genuine and show his emotions. You just never knew what he was going to do or say. My last name is McDonnell, and he would always call me "Mr. Mac" in a loud voice. He would tell us "talk is cheap but it takes money to buy good whiskey", and I would laugh because this Lutheran science teacher was talking to us kids about whiskey at school. My good buddy Mike Petty and I were always creating and drawing these outrageous cartoon comics in our notebooks. Mr.Nebal noticed this, and he took an interest in the comics I was creating, and he told me that I had a special talent and encouraged me to pursue my gifts and dreams. This made me special that he noticed me, and helped me believe that I had skills and abilities to do things with my life. He gave me confidence and made me feel appreciated. I never saw him again after 8th grade, and I feel very sorry about that. I miss him. But I am so happy to hear about his strong faith in our Lord Jesus, and I look forward to that day when we meet again. Thank you Mr. Nobel for the impact you had on me as a young boy.

“ Mark was a dear friend and inspiration to those of us who were blessed to share time with him. He had a zest for life like few others. His faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ was steadfast and shared without reservation. What a blessing his life has been to so many through his ministry! Annette and I enjoyed Mark and Zippy's stay with us, while he studied for his Master's Degree, in Seward. Our prayers are with Mark's family and friends at this time. Those who knew Mark are comforted by the sure knowledge that Mark rests now in the Lord's hands.

“ To Ingrid and the entire Nebel family.
May God's Mercy and Grace comfort you in this time of loss.

It is Jesus Christ' promise, that He is preparing a room in Our Fathers house for Mark.

Thank You for Your Sons Crimson Blood, that washes everything, White as Snow.

No more pain.
No more suffering.

Lord we praise you, and Mark we Love You, always.

“ Mr. Nebel was a Great teacher. He was one of those teachers you will never forget. His science experiments were so much fun. Mr. Nebel had great stories too. I still think of him when I see a hitchhiker. He was a man of strong faith and I have no doubt he is in heaven right now. Thank you for the memories Mr. Nebel! My prayers and thoughts are with his family at this time.

“ Such a handsome husband and father. We've enjoyed the many stories Jocelyn has shared with us and feel as though we did know Mark. Our sincere sympathy to his family-your relationship with Mark is not over, just changed. We have God's promise that we will be with Him in Heaven and be reunited with believers who are waiting for us there. Jesus still holds him in His hands; he truly fought the good fight!

“ Thank you for sharing your special gifts with my daughter, Brittany Liford, at Salem Lutheran Schools, you left a very lasting impression on her, and so many of the children whose lives you touched.
My deepest sympathy and condolences to Ingrid and the girls. R.I.P.

Diana Liford - August 28, 2016 at 07:02 PM

“ So sorry to hear of Mark's death. He was not only Clint's colleague for many years, but one of his best friends. They spent a lot of time together, not only at school but playing softball & volleyball, hunting and fishing together. And who knows what else. (Wonder what they are up to now!) Mark was also a dear family friend who spent much time with us before he met his lovely wife and had children of his own.
Ingrid, you and your daughters and all the Nebels can find comfort in knowing that Mark was indeed a Child of God and an heir to eternal life.

“ I am sorry to hear this news and Mr. Nebel's family and friends are in my thoughts. He was my 5th - 6th grade teacher and was my favorite grade school instructor. I remember him feeding crickets to the wolf spider who lived in among some boxes in the back of the classroom (by the windows). He used it as a teaching opportunity and I thought it was so cool. One day I found a small, live scorpion in our newly built house (who had apparently hitched a ride in on some fill dirt/sand), captured it with the help of my mom, and gave it to Mr. Nebel the next day. He was thrilled :).

Nicole from St. Luke's - August 28, 2016 at 03:53 PM

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends, and really to all who knew him. He had a fierce personality that I remember to this day. He was my fifth grade teacher at St. Lukes Lutheran School, and an incredible one at that. He pushed me to be my best, and never gave up on me when I was very close to giving up on myself. Our community was like family then, and I still miss it. I could hear him singing those hymns in church from across the chapel. His faith was as strong as his voice. He will truly be someone I will hold dearly until I see him again. R.I.P Mr. Nebel until we meet again.

“ Mr. Nebel was an amazing man and impacted the lives of my children when they attended Salem Lutheran School, Black Jack, MO. His family should be proud to know that he touched so many lives and his time on this earth was meaningful. My heart truly goes out to his wife and family. I will be praying for you all.

“ My condolence for your lost. Mr. Nebel was my favorite teacher. When I first had him as a science teacher at Salem, I knew I'd love him as my 6th great teacher. He loved his job, which made learning fun! I use to love to sit in the back and talk to him about his piranha. I got to class early during my 6th grade year just so I had a chance to possibly help feed and clean the cages of his class pets. He will truly be missed!

Kelley Jersie - August 28, 2016 at 12:27 PM

“ One of my all time favorites! I remember him singing in church every Sunday... Loud, unashamed, and full of praise! Both he and Mr Haertling are still two of the men I think of often when I need an example of how to act and live as a Christian man. I love and miss them both and look forward to our reunion someday. My thoughts and prayers to the Nebel family. Please know that Mr Nebel was one of those rare and special blessings from God. He was my 6th grade teacher at St Lukes Lutheran and I still to this day consider him one of my greatest mentors!

“ Mr. Nebel was an awesome man!! He was my 5th grade teacher at St. Luke's Lutheran School, needless to say that was many many moons ago, but he was full of inspiration, and he always pushed us to do our very best and he would not to except any less.

“ I am a student of Mr Nebal's from St Lukes Luthern School. I was so sad to hear of his passing. He was still so young. I loved his sense of humor and wit, even as a child. He could make me laugh at the silliest things! Your brother has impacted so many lives as a teacher, I am now 49 years old and to this day remember him fondly. I lost my Mom a couple a years ago. As each day passes it does get a little easier, but knowing that one day we we all be reunited with our loved ones is what we have to look forward too! God bless your family during this time of mourning. You all will be in my prayers.

“ Irv. Kappler -wrestling official and observer- Mark was a hard worker on the mat. He was always asking me ways he could better and ways to improve his position to make the calls. May God have mercy on him.

Irv Kappler - August 29, 2016 at 04:01 PM

“ To the family and friends of Mark, Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort. "For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain." Philippians 1:19-21

Sheldon Vanauken was a student of the English professor & Christian apologist, C.S. Lewis, in the early 1950's. He recounts in his book "A Severe Mercy", the story of his last meeting with Lewis as Vanauken was leaving Oxford for the U.S. Over one final lunch together, they spent time wondering aloud about the nature of life after death. When they finished eating, they stood outside, talked for a few more minutes, and just before parting ways, Lewis said to Vanauken, "I shan't say goodbye. We'll meet again." Lewis then crossed through the traffic to the other side of the street and when reaching the other side, turned around anticipating his friend would still be standing there. With a grin on his face, Lewis shouted over the great roar of cars, "Besides -- Christians never say goodbye."

Mark, I am confident in this, that we will meet again!!

“ We are very sorry to hear of Mark's passing. My family always referred to Mark as Mr. Nebel.

Mr. Nebel was a teacher for our two sons at Salem Lutheran Elementary School a few years ago.

He was an excellent science teacher and soccer coach. Always helping kids either on the field, in class, and especially during the science fairs.

Our sons always enjoyed his science discussions in class and would share them at home. To this day they have a passion for science.

Mark you will be forever missed by our family. That great smile of yours will never be forgotten.

May you forever rest in the arms of Christ.
